

InSite SiteWork

Excavation & Utility Take-Off Software

InSite SiteWork Earthwork and Utility Estimating Software is a complete earthwork & utility estimating program. Full earthwork, utility, cross section, and area & length take-off can be done from image files (PDF, TIF, etc.), Vector Files (CAD & 1st Gen PDF) files, and GPS and total station import.

Included training: Comprehensive instructor led training for one qualified site estimator.

Documentation: Comprehensive self-guided print and video tutorial.

InSite SiteWork Earthwork & Utility Estimating Software¹ $7495
(includes one year of software updates and 24 hour support)²

Second and additional copy pricing $4995

Annual Software Updates and 24 hour Tech Support³ $645

Network Licensing available- Please Call

Field General

Site Layout and GPS Modeling

Field General Office Upgrade: Allows point data (curbs, buildings, roads, offsets) and 3-D surface models to be prepared for layout with traditional data collectors and positioning equipment (traditional two person total station, robotic total station or GPS) and allows export of site models to machine control.

Upgrade added to InSite SiteWork $2295

(includes one year of software updates & technical support)

Field General Office Annual Technical Support³ & Updates $645

¹Prices in US dollars. Effective January 1st, 2018. Pricing subject to change.

²24/7 support applies to US and Canada.

³ Telephone support available for Named User who has completed training.